

Please be advised that it would be a travesty to overturn the Protection Act. Telemarketers call at all hours whether it be in the wee hours of the morning or after midnight. Peoples privacy should be respected. I have an unlisted telephone number but they manage to get this number anyway. The law was made to protect the INNOCENT from the WOLVES